The Philippine Embassy in Canberra Walks with Nations to Support Heart Foundation ACT

14 October 2016 –Philippine Ambassador Minda Calaguian-Cruz led the Philippine Embassy in the Walk of Nations at Floriade in Canberra, Australia on 14 October 2016. The Philippine Embassy joined several other Embassies on a 45-minute early morning walk around Floriade, Canberra’s biggest flower festival held annually.

H.E. Minda Calaguian-Cruz, Philippine Ambassador to Australia, leads the Philippine Embassy for the Walk of Nations at Floriade in support of the Heart Foundation ACT, 14 October 2016

The Heart Foundation ACT, a charity partner for Floriade 2016, initiated the Walk of Nations to engage the diplomatic community and local organizations to help promote the benefits of walking for the health of the heart. The walk covered 3.5 kilometers amidst the picturesque grounds of the flower festival.

Philippine Ambassador Minda Calaguian-Cruz met Mr. Tony Stubbs, CEO of Heart Foundation ACT on 21 October 2016 to express the Embassy’s full support for the Foundation and hand over a contribution from the Philippine Embassy personnel.

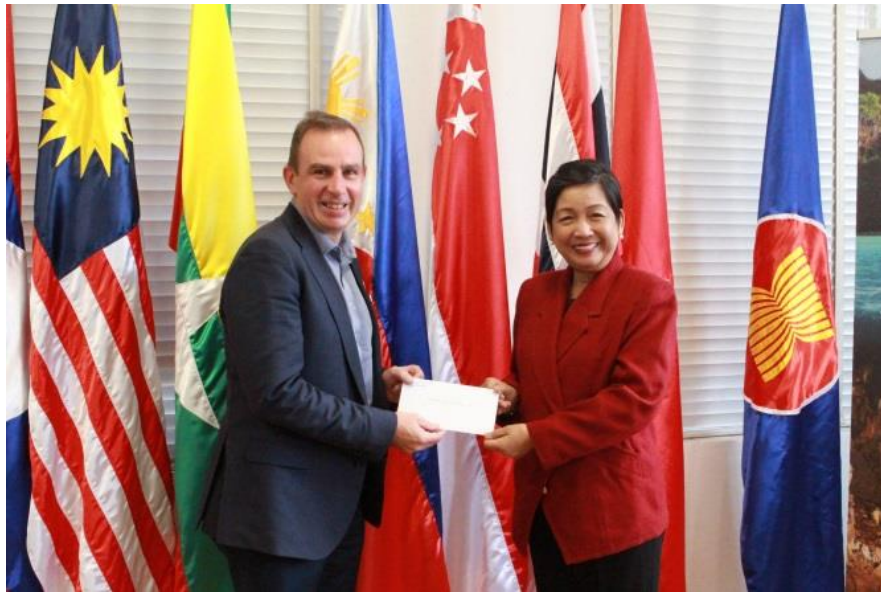

The Philippine Embassy in Canberra enjoys the Filipino community to keep a healthy and active lifestyle through walking. END
