Filipino Food and Beverage Showcased in Australia's Capital City

CANBERRA, Australia (09 July 2017) – The Philippine Embassy in Australia shared with the Australian Capital Territory Filipino food and beverage during its Independence Day celebrations on 19 June 2017 at Hyatt Hotel and 09 July 2017 at the Philippine Embassy grounds.

The Philippine Embassy's Independence Day celebrations were supported by Oishi, Mama Sita's Mixes and Sauces, 7D Mangoes, Destileria Limtuaco and Malagos Chocolates.

The Philippine Embassy shared fine Filipino food and beverages during its National Day Reception on 19 June 2017 with around 200 guests. These guests represented the diplomatic corps, Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), other Australian government agencies, academe, media and the Filipino-Australian community in Canberra. The guests each received a taste of the Philippines with a gift pack of Oishi snacks, Mama Sita's Mixes and Sauces, 7D Mangoes and Malagos Chocolates.

More than 30 Filipino workers in Australia also received a gift pack of Filipino products when they attended the 1st Post Arrival Orientation Seminar (PAOS) at the Philippine Embassy grounds during the Filipino Community Fair on 09 July 2017. The Philippine Embassy gave away Destileria Limtuaco products among its raffle prizes. More than 100 Filipinos and residents in Canberra attended the Fair.

The Philippine Embassy supports promoting Filipino food and beverage during its events and thanks Oishi, Mama Sita's Mixes and Sauces, 7D Mangoes, Destileria Limtuaco and Malagos Chocolates for their generosity. END
